CURRENT NOTES.

P T Barnum has sent an order to San Francisco for two large sea lions—"something that can howl, and will prove an attraction"

If her "poem" tells the truth, a Buffalo woman has buried her love "on the stormy strand of the deep dark ocean of mad despair"

The Legislature of Ohio is again petitioned to accept the plot of ground at North Bend Ohio which contains the neglected grave of William Henry Harrison, and to improve it in a manner worthy of his memory and of the State

Gov Hayes, of Ohio, has informed the Legislature that he has not ordered an election of Congressman to fill out the brief unexpired term of Gen Schenck, because he thought it would be a useless expenditure of time, money and labor

A story, which has for its hero a venerable parrot, comes from North Carolina. As the story runs the bird is over eighty years old, and the other day recognized, after many years of separation, one of its former owners when he entered the saloon in which it is now kept, and cried out, "Lacy! Lacy!"

There is a negro debating society in Bainbridge, Ga, the last meeting of which was devoted to a discussion of the question whether education or money is the most beneficial to a community. The advocates of the education side of the question won the prize—$20 in gold. At the next meeting they will decide whether it is to the interest of the laborer to work for wages or a part of the crop.

Some young men in Bangor, Me, who had heard marvelous stories of the number of pickerel caught thereabouts through the ice, and started out to do a little fishing the other day themselves, and told an inquisitive country cousin, whom they met on the way, that they had not included an axe in their otherwise complete outfit, because "there were lots of people fishing there last winter, and they could fish through last year's holes"

A sprightly little daily, with a page seven inches by five, is published in Duluth under the title of the Morning Call. It has reached its thirtieth number, was started on a capital of ten cents, with an office costing exactly fifty-three dollars and twenty cents, and has now reached a very respectable circulation. The editor wants a power press worth eleven hundred dollars. He says he has one hundred dollars of the money and is anxious to find a man or woman in Minnesota who will dare lend him a thousand dollars for six months, to make up the amount

The New York Mail says "A young lady up town, the other night, made the discovery that her sister intended to give her a surprise party. Immediately, in the most energetic manner, she found out all the invitees, remanded the invitations, issued them again for one night sooner, did the same for the music and supper, and lay in wait. The sister coming home the night before her intended party found herself forestalled. We are sorry to say that she did not take the matter philosophically, but got up a quarrel with her deceitful sister then and there, both claiming the credit. 'It's mine' 'No, it's mine' A clear case, we think, of mine and countermine"

The Boston Traveller says "A lady who had been boarding at a Southern hotel, among sick and dying Northern people writes indignantly to her friends about the cruelty of sending hopeless invalids away from the convenience and comforts of home, to suffer and die among strangers, without any home comforts and alleviations. And yet physicians are continually doing this same thing. Having a patient for whom they can do nothing, they send him South, with the delusive hope of recovery, when there is nothing before him but a sad and solitary death away from home and friends. In the incipient stages of disease, and when the patient is well enough to take care of himself, and to bear without great suffering the rough and tumble of 'a life abroad,' it may be an excellent prescription to try a Southern climate, but where disease has got a firm hold the cases are very few in which an experiment is advisable or safe"

Swamp and Overflowed Lands

On the 23d of January, Senator Corbett introduced a bill "to provide for the segregation and survey of the swamp and overflowed lands in the State of Oregon," of which the following is a copy:

Be it enacted, etc, That the Surveyor General of the State of Oregon shall under the instruction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, cause, as soon as practicable all the swamp and overflowed lands within said State, with the exceptions hereinafter provided for, to be surveyed and segregated from the adjoining dry lands

Sec 2 And be it further enacted, That said segregation and survey shall be made by a meander line, run as near as may be on or to the natural line of separation between the dry land and the land made too wet for cultivation by swamp or overflow without artificial drainage or other means of reclaiming the same

Sec 3 And be it further enacted, That the said Surveyor General shall perpetuate such meander line bounding every tract of swamp or overflowed land, by causing the same to be marked on the trees where it passes through timber, its angles and intersections with the lines of the public surveys, marked by monuments in all respects similar to those required to mark the intersections of the lines of the public surveys with navigable waters

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said Surveyor General shall cause the field notes of the surveys of said swamp and overflowed lands, to be kept in the field, returned to, examined and approved, in his office, and the surveys described to be platted, calculated and recorded in his office, in all respects the same as other public surveys

Sec 5 And be it further enacted, That when (except as is otherwise provided in this act) all the swamp and overflowed lands known to be in the State of Oregon, whether the public surveys have been extended over them or not, have been segregated, surveyed, and plats and field notes complete as by law required in respect to other surveys of the public lands it shall be the duty of said Surveyor General to furnish to the Governor of the State of Oregon complete copies of said plats and field notes, and upon the approval of said plats and surveys by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the President shall issue his patent conveying said swamp and overflowed lands to the State of Oregon

Sec 6 And be it further enacted, That this act shall not apply to any swamp or overflow in its whole extent of less area than forty acres, or to any tract of swamp or overflowed land in said State over which the public surveys had been extended prior to September 12 anno Domini 1860, which has been claimed under the homestead or pre-emption laws, or in any other way disposed of by the United States, prior to the passage of this act

Sec 7 And be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this be, and the same are hereby repealed; this act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage

Berlin telegrams of January 27, state that the Government of Germany charges France with wantonly continuing the war when it would be for the interest of humanity to close it by a surrender to a fate which is inevitable. In view of the obstinate continuance of the war by the French Government, when its force is rendered so weak, such resistance cannot prove otherwise than futile, and the claims of Germany will probably be extended rather than decreased by a prolonged though ineffective opposition to her demands. Instead of demanding that the boundary lines of her territories be marked by the river Moselle, she will probably demand that the River Meuse mark the boundaries of France and Germany

By Overland Telegraph.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 10.

Thiers Elected to the French Assembly.

LONDON, Feb —Thiers is elected to the National Assembly by an overwhelming majority

French Military Chest Surrendered

BERLIN, Feb 9—The military chest of the French Army of the East, containing 1,500,000 francs, has been surrendered to the Swiss Government

Seige of Belfort.

VERSAILLES, Feb 8—Gen Von Treskow reports that his command, now besieging Belfort, have carried some of the detachment forts

Probable Terms of Peace

LONDON, Feb 9—Although the report of the terms demanded by Prussia as conditions of peace is destitute of authority, there are good reasons to believe it correct. The following are the conditions as reported

The cession of Alsace, and sixty German square miles of Lorraine, which consists of 437 square miles (the part of Lorraine to be ceded includes Metz), and a contribution of one and one-half million francs for the expenses of the war, thirty million francs for captured ships and forty million francs for German workmen, clerks, and small industrials expelled from France and certain rents of a few millions on limited time for crippled and maimed Germans, and orphans, caused by the war

The French Elections

BORDEAUX, Feb 9—In the elections for the Assembly, the Republicans have been successful in Perpignan and Oranan and the Departments of Ardeche, Manet, Loire, Ariege, Indre and Peranit. The conservative candidates have been elected from Poictrens and Montauban and in the Departments of Tarne and Garonne. Candidates of the Liberal Union party have been generally elected throughout France whenever put in nomination. The Republican majority is large

English Policy

LONDON, Feb 9—The Queen opened the session of the Houses of Parliament in person. Disraeli made some remarks, in the course of which he criticised the policy of the Government. He advocated armed neutrality and final pacification, which would exclude all germs of hostility. He lamented the inertia of the Government last July, when it was able to influence belligerents. The value of its efforts to procure the withdrawal of Prince Leopold from the Spanish throne could not be admitted, but it was then possible for the Government to withhold France from war by hinting at armed neutrality and employing its acknowledged influence to Prussia to induce her to forbear. Disraeli is equally severe in his comments on the course which England was taking in the Black Sea question.

Referring to American questions, he denounced the hostile attitude of Senator Sumner and others towards England as unlike the attitude assumed toward other powers, and recommended that it should be encountered with forbearance and contempt. Let a passion might be aroused which could not be easily allayed, therefore he hoped for resumption of negotiations for the settlement of all questions between England and America. He meantime in view of the relations of England with foreign countries, opposed the proposed increase of the military forces of the kingdom

Gladstone made an able speech in support of the address. He replied to the criticism of Disraeli. He denied that there was any need of armed neutrality last year. To advise Prussia against the Hohenzollern candidacy was going to the extreme limit of international right to interfere. The neutralization of the Black Sea had lost its importance to England since the Crimean war. Its maintenance had been abandoned by France. He declared England's true policy was nonintervention abroad, study of domestic questions, and observance of neutrality and its obligations. He begged the House would not fetter the Government in liberty of action, or doubt for a moment its aim to secure peace with honor and safety to the country. The address was agreed to and the House adjourned.

English Commissioners to America.

LONDON, Feb. 9—The World's cable dispatch says the English members of the joint commission to settle the Alabama and fishery questions are Earl De Grey, Mr Thornton, Sir John A Mc Donald and Sir John Rose. Earl De Grey sails for Washington to-morrow as President of the Commission

WASHINGTON CITY

A Groundless Rumor

WASHINGTON, Feb 9—The Navy Department has received the following dispatch from telegraph operators at Havana, dated to-day. "I cannot trace the report of the loss of the Tennessee to any reliable source, and believe it to be a hoax. Our papers have not attended to the rumor. Key West advices state that no news has been received there of the Tennessee being in trouble

CALIFORNIA.

Reduction of Fares on the Pacific Railroads—San Francisco News

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 9—It is officially announced that second class or emigrant train fare has been reduced, between Omaha and San Francisco, from $72 to $50. Connecting lines at the East are to sell tickets at that rate good for thirty days

The weather is warm and clear.

The vessel which sailed yesterday for Yokohama carried 10,000 fire brick, the first shipment of this article to Japan from California

Lafayette Edgerly sues Isaac Pixley for $10,000 damages, for causing him to be arrested and held in custody three hours, on the 6th inst., no charge being finally preferred against him

The Dion-Deery match drew a comparatively small audience this evening. Probably not more than $10,000 changed hands on the match, all told. On the twenty fourth inning Deery had 124 and Dion 115, very little betting going on. The game will probably be finished about midnight.

In consequence of the destruction of mail by burning, at the late railroad accident in New York, the steamer Moses Taylor will not sail for Honolulu to connect with the Australian steamer until the 16th

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

A contract has been let for carrying the mail twice a day from Victoria to Esquimalt for $600 per annum

On the 7th inst. the Hudson's Bay Company's bark Lady Lampson sailed from Esquimalt for London with a very valuable cargo of furs and oil

They talk of trying road steamers in British Columbia. A bill was introduced in the Legislative Council to grant Messrs Barnard & Beedy the exclusive right to run Thompson's Road Steamers between Yale and Cariboo for three years.

The schooner Forest King was wrecked a few days ago on the west side of Vancouver Island, near Barclay Sound. She belonged to Messrs Pope & Talbot of Port Gamble. The vessel is a total loss. She was coming from Honolulu in ballast. Indians plundered her of everything. Crew all saved.

A Victoria paper has this item. We are informed by some of the crew of the wrecked schooner Forest King that while they were at the Indian rancherie, Barclay Sound, they noticed a little white girl, about six years of age, in one of the huts. As soon as the Indians knew that the white men had seen the child they hid her, and she was not seen again by any of them. It is supposed that this is one of the white children who were in the bark John Bright when she was wrecked, about two years ago near Barclay Sound. There were two children belonging to the Captain, on board the vessel when she was cast ashore. The authorities should make some inquiries with reference to the liberation of this child

Sir Walter Scott's admirers are forming an association, principally of Scotsmen, for the purpose of celebrating the centennial anniversary of the birthday of the poet and historian on the 15th of August last

WASHINGTON, Feb 10—In the House Smith of Oregon, stated that on the vote on the income tax bill, yesterday, he voted in the affirmative and Eldridge stated that he voted in the negative, neither vote being recorded

Dispatches from Washington [illegible] the debate in the executive session of the Senate yesterday, on the [illegible] message and accompanying documents [illegible] strange. The constitutional [illegible] to appoint such Commission [illegible] being delegated to him by Congress was questioned. The most serious objection made [illegible] the proposition of the message [illegible] general in its terms. Senators [illegible] were desirous that any [illegible] the Alabama claims and fishery question [illegible] are now [illegible] that the settlement of these shall be encumbered with claims of British subjects for damages during the Fenian raids, [illegible] on account of [illegible] in Confederate [illegible] is said that by the terms of the proposition [illegible] mitted, these or any other subject of difference between the two nations might be matters of consideration

The question as to the pay of the commissioners, as all except Hoar are now office holders, and as to the legality of Williams' appointment to an office created during his term as Senator were among points which were alluded to in the debate. The matter went over till to-day

Representatives of the Northwestern States think that the settlement [illegible] claims will involve the cession to [illegible] States of the British country northwest of Lake Superior

Approval of the steps thus far taken by the Executive is widely expressed here by men of all parties. The President's selection of commissioners meets with general approval also. It is known that the portion of the commission coming from England will sail at once and [illegible] altogether probable that the Joint High Commission will have organized and proceeded to business by the 1st of March

A question discussed involved the eligibility of Senator Williams as a commissioner, as the Constitution contains a provision that no Senator or Representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created or the emoluments increased during such time

Later—Williams has been confirmed Commissioner. The point decided, after debate on his case, was that the office to which he was nominated is not a civil office created by law, it being held that he is appointed to represent the President in an executive capacity

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 10—The Dion Deery billiard match last night surprised everybody in its result. At the outset Deery played very badly, and on the 5th inning Dion had made 61 to Deery's 8, thus getting back his whole discount and three more. The betting then ran two to one against Deery. Later in the game Deery picked up rapidly while Dion fell off. On the 57th inning Deery scored 84, and from that time out had it all his own way, winning the game on the 93d inning by 550 against Dion's 441, having 109 clear without the 50 discount allowed him. At the conclusion of the match, Deery was escorted from the hall by his friends amid great excitement

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb 10—The Stock Exchange Board to-day appropriated $1,000 to aid the French Sanitary Fund, and directed Mr Cavalier President of the Board, to remit the money immediately. A New York Committee, appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to raise funds for the same purpose, is meeting with unexpected good success.

Suit was commenced in the 15th District Court to-day by Seth Gill against W E Connell and others for recovery of possession of a large portion of San Pablo rancho, Contra Costa county, valued at $300,000. Leading lawyers of the city are engaged for the prosecution and defense

The case of Astrologer Cohn, Dr Charles O'Donnell and Arabella Knox, charged with causing the death of a young French woman, Eugenie Chanvelte, by abortion, some months since, is set for preliminary examination in the police court Friday next. The trial in this case has been postponed for some reason until the public had almost forgotten the affair

An order for one thousand gallons of Cucomongo wine was received here to-day, from London for the regular trade there. Samples of California wine sent there recently have been declared superior to the wines of continental Europe, by prominent native wine dealers and consumers and this is the first order of what is believed will soon become a large trade

Creditors of the defunct Mooney's bank are holding another meeting this evening, with a small attendance. There is not much prospect of effecting any definite result

PETALUMA, Feb 10—A shooting and fatal accident occurred this afternoon at Liberty school house, five miles from here. Mr R H Mason and wife of this place went into the country riding, taking a gun along. Mr Mason got out of the buggy to shoot a rabbit, letting his wife hand him the gun. In attempting to comply, the gun was discharged, the entire contents entering her head, causing instant death. She leaves two small children.

The Arizona Miner of Feb 4th, has the following. A scouting party of troops are now out from Camp Verdi. A Camp McDowell correspondent states that Lieut R[illegible]s and fifteen men surprised a party of Indians in camp seventeen miles from that post and completely routed them and recovered fifteen head of stolen stock.

The recently discovered rich and extensive silver mines in Bradshaw district have caused great excitement. Large numbers are rushing to that locality. Five hundred tons of ore was brought in last week. After repeated assays it is pronounced equal to first class Nevada ores. As high as 1,590 ounces of silver per ton of rock was obtained. The lowest assay exceeded 500. It is rumored that several purchases of mines in various parts of the Territory have been recently made, chiefly by English Capitalists

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 11, 1871.

The School Fund Grant.

On the 20th January Senator Williams made a report from the Committee on Public Lands upon the 500,000 acres of land donated to Oregon by the General Government, and which the people of Oregon in their Constitution prayed might be set apart for a permanent and irreducible school fund. The attempt of speculators at the last session of the Legislature to absorb these lands made it necessary to take some action to check them, if any part of the lands were to be saved for schools as the people of Oregon originally intended. In his report Senator Williams shows that several of the States have been allowed by Congress to divert the proceeds of these lands from internal improvements to educational purposes. The case of the grant to Iowa, which has often been alluded to as precisely similar to the grant to Oregon, is cited, and the subsequent act of Congress declaring that the United States when Iowa was admitted into the Union did assent to the application of the lands for the support of common schools, is quoted, with the remark, however, that the declaratory act in the case of Iowa "does not, of course, determine the question as to whether the United States did or did not assent, as it states, so as to bind judical tribunals considering rights intervening between the two acts, but it is valuable and high authority as showing that in the opinion of Congress an act simply admitting a new State implies an assent by the [illegible] all the provisions of the [illegible] new State." The report [illegible] Senator Williams also shows [illegible] Wisconsin made an application [illegible] this grant precisely similar [illegible] by the people of Oregon, and [illegible] Congress was given thereto [illegible] State was admitted into the Union, presumably the Congressional assent was [illegible] to the like application [illegible] of Oregon. After citing the precedents the committee say:

> Viewing the question in the light of this history, it seems fair to conclude that when a new State was admitted into the Union, Congress, if it [illegible] agreed that the provisions [illegible] Constitution with which the State is admitted shall constitute its [illegible] particularly so when the object [illegible] made by Congress, would take effect, as in the Oregon case, without any further action by the State.

On the [illegible] January Senator Williams addressed [illegible] Commissioner of the General Land Office in relation to this grant, and received a reply in which the Commissioner stated his view of it:

> The fact that the Constitution of Oregon contained a clause accepting this grant, and devoting the proceeds of [illegible] educational purposes, having been passed upon by Congress without any objection [illegible] in the opinion of this office a tacit recognition of the same, and would [illegible] justify the Legislature in so disposing of it. [illegible] the only question that could arise relative to this grant in your State, would be, whether the Legislature under this constitutional provision could divert these lands, or the proceeds of them, from educational to any other purpose.

The paragraph from the Committee's report we copy entire, viz:

> That the appropriation of said fund as made by the Constitution of Oregon is wise, admits of no [illegible] the proceeds of 500,000 acres [illegible] the hands of the Legislature, to be [illegible] what is called internal improvements is to open the door to all sorts of [illegible] and schemes of speculation. By an act of the last session $200,000 of this fund was given [illegible] canal and locks at the falls of the Willamette while there was a proposal pending at the same time by another responsible company to do precisely the same work for $125,000. [illegible] a gratuity of $75,000 to [illegible] proposition to allow competition for the contract were rejected, and instead of [illegible] the subsidy [illegible] as the work progresses, as is usual in such cases, the whole amount was delivered to the company within ninety days after the passage of the act. No doubt the construction of said canal and locks will create an excellent water power, and may, perhaps, improve the navigation of the river, but as the act granting this subsidy allows the company to tax the commerce around the falls fifty cents per ton, while the tax now is only fourteen cents per ton, the public [illegible] and advantages of the work are not very apparent, to say nothing of the competition in transportation which lines of railroad parallel with the river will produce. Various other plans to divide the balance of this fund among wagon roads, canals, and other local projects, were before the Legislature, and it only needs [illegible] to say that of the Legislature [illegible] constitutional restraints, [illegible] magnificent fund will be consumed in this way without any great or permanent advantage to the people of the State. One million dollars ought to be realized from the sale of 500,000 acres [illegible] and this, if properly invested, will produce at least $100,000 annual interest. That would furnish 400 school districts with $250 each per annum.

The report closes with a recommendation [illegible] be applied as provided in the [illegible] Oregon, but says that the question as to whether or not the act admitting [illegible] is a sufficient assent to such [illegible] is, in the opinion of the Committee, [illegible] a judicial one. They therefore [illegible] the passage of the resolution in [illegible] to secure to the schools the remainder of the lands, without any question. We have already published the resolution, and need not reproduce it.

Senator Corbett's Swamp Land Bill.

Elsewhere in this issue we print the bill introduced in the Senate on the 23d January by Senator Corbett, in relation to swamp lands in Oregon. The effect of this bill, in case it becomes a law as we suppose it will, [illegible] stop the indiscriminate land grabbing now attempted in Oregon, under the act of the [illegible] Legislature. We have heretofore shown why we consider that act totally inoperative; but the intentions of those who framed it are apparent, and such a bill as this of Senator Corbett's is needed to put a quietus upon the operations of the land grabbers and to assure homestead settlers that they cannot be disturbed by this rapacious ring. Under this bill the State cannot pretend to any title to the swamp and overflowed lands until they have been segregated by the Surveyor General from the lands that are dry, and a patent issued therefor by the General Government. This in fact is the state of the case now; but it is better to define it plainly by law, as this act proposes to do. Senator Corbett will without doubt urge this bill with his accustomed energy and secure its passage. We commend the bill to the attention of those interested.

Senator Williams is certainly a great terror to the opposition press. The Olympia Standard absurdly says that he is endeavoring to make Washington Territory a State, in order to become one of her Senators! That paper does itself no credit, and makes no point against Williams, by trying to represent him as a mendicant politician and adventurer. His reputation for stability of character and self-respecting ability is too well established. Williams is, and will remain, an Oregon man, and his talents will still be useful to the people of his State. He will be more valuable to Oregon out of the Senate than his successor will be in it.

Negotiations with Great Britain.

It appears that negotiations for the settlement of questions pending between the United States and Great Britain are about to be reopened under auspices that promise very satisfactory results. The disposition of Great Britain to treat and to bring to a final settlement questions that are very embarrassing to her is apparent, and the administration at Washington meets it in a way that seems calculated to result well for American interests. The President has made an excellent selection of Commissioners to represent the United States. Their names were all reported in our dispatches of yesterday.

It may well be supposed that territorial questions will be among those discussed before this High Commission, and prominent among them will probably be that of San Juan Island. The present opportunity should be seized to bring to a termination the anomalous condition of joint military occupation which has existed upon that island for the last twelve years. The right of the United States should be asserted in an emphatic manner, and no doubt it will be.

It may be expected that Great Britain will acknowledge her error in the matter of the Alabama, and willingly consent that the doctrine which the United States has contended for shall be recognized as a principle of public law. Nothing less than this, with proper indemnity, will be satisfactory to the people of the United States.

The Herald says that Judge Lancaster now owns the salt springs in Columbia county, and the manufacture of salt will soon be resumed. We don't know whether Judge Lancaster is a free trader or not, but as he is a Democrat we presume he is one. The duty on salt is eighteen cents per one hundred pounds. Take the duty off and Judge Lancaster's salt spring would be about as valueless as an investment in Confederate bonds. Under the Democratic doctrine of free trade he could never make salt here to compete with the foreign article. The Herald has many times denounced the duty on salt as a swindle and a device to favor monopolists. Inasmuch as the boiling of salt is about to be commenced in Oregon, we commend this situation to its attention. It says the manufacture of salt is a very valuable industry; yet that industry is one which is possible here only with a tariff [illegible] it. Such a tariff it has frequently [illegible]. It is well to bring this subject before the public mind by practical illustrations.

The New York Tribune well says: A great advance in national morals is marked by the attitude of the country in the San Domingo question. It is not many years since the violent annexation of the Antilles was a policy openly avowed by the leaders of a powerful party, and accepted without question by all their followers. The Democratic masses saw without protest a conference of diplomatists at Ostend, meeting to plot the forcible seizure of an island belonging to a friendly power, without consulting the wishes either of the colonists or the home government. Now, however, when one of the richest jewels of the Caribbean is just within our grasp, when the measure of acquisition is equally desired by the Executive and flattering to the national pride, we see the country refusing to be carried away by the temptations of the Anglo-Saxon land-hunger, and quietly awaiting a full investigation of all the facts and a careful pondering of all the circumstances of the case.

An association has been formed at New York to erect a monument to Admiral Farragut, to cost $100,000. Gen. Dix is President of the Association.

The Sacramento Union and Eastern papers publish the name of "Joseph P. Kelly" as the new Senator from Oregon. "Such is fame."

The editor of the Statesman has been down to Kalama, and publishes notes taken "by the way."

By order of the Common Council of the city of Salem notice is given to the public that there are now no cases of small pox in that city, and that all traces of the disease have entirely disappeared from the city limits.

Any one knowing of the whereabouts of Valentine Kiefer or his brother will confer a favor by furnishing such information to the Oregon City Enterprise. Should this meet the eye of either of the above named parties, they will hear of something to their advantage by making known their address. The last heard of Valentine he was at work on the Columbia river, and left there about two years ago for Jacksonville.

We learn from a private letter from Forest Grove that the schools are in a flourishing condition at that place. Mr. William L. Worthington has closed his term of nine months in the District school, with the good feelings of his pupils and patrons. He leaves for California in a few days to take charge of a popular school in San Francisco. We also learn that Pacific University is well patronized, and gives general satisfaction. It may be well to say to parents and guardians having families to educate, that Forest Grove is a desirable place for that purpose.

The "New Invention" in Dentistry.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Noticing in your issue of Wednesday morning, and also in the other city papers, a card concerning a so called "new invention" in filling teeth, I wish to to call the attention of the public to the article referred to as containing several statement which are calculated to mislead the public. In regard to the efficiency of the plan proposed (for filling teeth) there are, comparatively, very few cases where it would be of the least utility, as it is not general in its application. The principal point I wish to call attention to is the "original" idea. The assertion in the article referred to that it is a "new and original method" is rather startling to members of the profession, as it is known that the same idea has been made use of in large contour fillings for a number of years. I can call to mind several cases I have met with in San Francisco, and also one in this city where the same principle was applied.

THE THIRD LECTURE OF THE COURSE WILL be delivered by

Of Portland,

On Tuesday Even'g, Feb. 14, 1871,

At 7½ o'clock.

Subject—"Our Mother Tongue."

The language of a nation is the accumulation of the experience, the wisdom and the genius of a nation. "The heart of a people is its Mother Tongue," and it is only by learning that Mother Tongue [illegible] can know the heart. It is only [illegible] the thoughts that breathe and the words that burn from the lips of her poets and her orators, her historians and her dramatists that you can feel that heart beating response to your own. Thus we have an argument of great power in favor of studying one's own language, and therefore, to the American the study of the English language is deeply interesting and important, not only for its great intrinsic merits, but also for its uses and applications to the great purposes of life.

Its History, its present structure and elements; its Contents, the literature of ages, its Speech, the Mother Tongue of increasing millions. Its copiousness and flexibility, its adaptedness and generosity qualify it for wider diffusion, and the people who fondly call it "Mother Tongue" is the most free, intelligent and enterprising among the nations. What then shall be its destiny? It is a sacred trust to be shielded from abuse and transmitted intact and pure.

"Old Saxon words, old Saxon words!
Your spell are round us thrown;
To haunt our daily paths and dreams
With music all your own;
Each one in its own power a host,
The fond remembrance brings
The earliest, brightest aspect back
Of life's familiar things."

Dr. Lindsley takes a high rank as a ministerial orator. His Sabbath evening lectures are attracting a large and rapidly increasing audience. He has a rich, well modulated voice, and his style of eloquence is forcible, convincing, and often fervid and impassioned, abounding in illustration, metaphor and ornament—every expression being a fine specimen of "Our Mother Tongue."

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 11, 1871.

CITY.

A Slight Difference in our Favor.—Last year the ship Montgomery Castle made a voyage to San Francisco, and remained in that port 28 days. This year she made a voyage to Portland by way of Victoria, remaining 10 days at the latter port and 55 days at Portland. The Captain informed the house to whom she was consigned that the expenses of getting in and out of both these latter ports, including all port charges, were in the aggregate, considerably smaller than those of his visit to San Francisco. And this, though he had to pay $650 lighterage from Esquimault to Victoria, on account of his vessel being too deep to go into Victoria bay. Shippers will take note that the difference for vessels of great draught is in our favor—a pointed argument in favor of direct trade to Portland.

Episcopal Missionary Convocation.—The Missionary Convocation of the Episcopal Church commenced in Oregon City, Thursday evening, and will continue until after Sunday. Services will be held in the morning and evening of each day, and on Sunday afternoon, instead of the regular Sunday school, there will be an especial service for children and parents, with short missionary addresses. Among the clergy present are Rt. Rev. Bishop Morris, Rev. Mr. Stoy, of Portland, Rev. Mr. Nicholson, Vancouver; Rev. Mr. Hyland, of Astoria; Rev. Mr. Bonnell, of Salem; Rev. Mr. Sellwood, of Milwaukie, and Rev. Mr. Sellwood, of Oregon City.

Singing Exhibition.—The Mount Pleasant Singing Society will close the second term of rehearsals at the Mt. Zion School house, Feb. 25th, at 2 o'clock P. M. The officers of this organization are as follows: H. M. Humphrey, President, F. B Hankins, Secretary; B. F. Henness, Treasurer, and Prof. J. B. McGibeny, Conductor. The Society numbers 18 ladies and 16 gentlemen. So says the Advocate.

The Poor House.—The Advocate makes the following statistics of the poor-house for the quarter ending Jan. 31st: Number of inmates Nov. 1st, 20; admitted during the quarter, 33; discharged, 24, readmitted, 3; transferred to town for medical treatment, 1; removed by friends, 2, deaths, 1; sent to Insane Asylum, 1; remaining in the institution, Feb. 1st, 22. All the bad cases are improving.

Oregon Stoves.—The proprietors of the Oregon Iron Works in this city are preparing to manufacture stoves of every style. By actual experiment they have demonstrated that they can [illegible] as good [illegible] as those moulded at the East and at [illegible] prices. A number of practical stove moulders have been sent for, and the company will commence work on a large scale.

The Case of Chas. Bean.—Justice Moreland, before whom this case was tried on Thursday, pronounced judgment yesterday morning, imposing a fine of $40 upon the defendant, convicted by a jury of petit larceny by embezzling [illegible] [illegible]. The motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment was not insisted upon by defendant.

[illegible] Exhibition.—The closing exercises of the present term of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary will take place this Saturday evening, at the Taylor street M. E. Church. [illegible] will be extended for those who take part in the exercises and consequently a rare [illegible] may be anticipated.

The Lucky Holders Wanted.—Various and sundry people invested in a raffle at Charley Goldstein's the other night. Ticket 4[illegible] won the [illegible], and numbers 22 and [illegible] won books. Ticket holders are requested to overhaul their pasteboards, see who are the lucky ones and call for their prizes.

Exchange of Pulpits.—Rev. Mr. Stoy being in attendance at the Missionary Convocation at Oregon City, the pulpit at Trinity church will be occupied Sunday morning by Rev. James Sellwood. At St David's Chapel, East Portland, there will be services at [illegible] P. M.—none in the morning.

Sunday Evening Lecture.—The audience [illegible] attends Mr. Todd's free lecture in the Oro Fino Theater voted on last Sunday evening to give him a benefit the next Sunday evening—to-morrow—with an admission of 25 cents. Subject, "The poetry of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

An Editor in Luck.—"Tony" Noltner of the Enterprise says he drew a silver watch in the Nevada gift enterprise and he wants to know who it is that says newspaper men never have any luck. Before crowing much, Tony should wait and see if the thing will run without a crank.

A New Rink.—It is stated that Messrs Myrick & Dodge, who have purchased the skating rink of Mr. Bradford, intend to erect a new building for rink purposes at the corner of Pine and Fourth streets, the skating floor to be sixty by one hundred and fifty feet.

Mr. Holladay to Return.—We learn that Mr Holladay is to leave New York on the 22d inst for Oregon, and that he will be here about the 7th March. He is hurrying back to push his great enterprises for the development of Oregon.

The West Side Road.—We publish this morning a full list of the subscribers to the west side road. Mr Halsey, Vice President of the company, states as we learn, that the first section of the road will be completed by November next.

Arrival of the "Stella."—The Norwegian bark [illegible], Master, arrived at half past twelve yesterday morning, from San Francisco. She comes in ballast, consigned to Hibbard & Co., and with flour on account of the Salem mills.

To Sail.—The propeller steamship California, [illegible], Commander, is advertised to sail for Puget Sound and Victoria, at 4 P. M., next Wednesday. The Idaho, now en route from San Francisco, is advertised to sail hence on Thursday.

Academical Exhibition.—We are requested to state that the exhibition and closing exercises of the Portland Academy and Female Seminary this evening, will commence at half past seven. Doors will open at seven o'clock.

More Stock Cattle.—Another drove of cattle arrived in this city last evening for shipment to The Dalles. They came from Marion county, and are en route for the Crooked river country.

AMUSEMENTS.

Soiree.—Prof. Cardinell will give his usual weekly soiree this evening, at his dancing academy. His parties are always well managed and he takes particular pains to make things pleasant for all who attend.

East Portland Park.—The programme for the amusements at East Portland Park on Sunday has been published. It will be seen that the great rope-walking feat will be performed at a little after 3 o'clock P. M. The other amusements will, however, begin at 1 o'clock, to consist of balloon ascensions, dancing, skating tournament, etc. The rope-walking will be the great feature of the day, however. It will be such an act of courage and daring as the people of this country may not, in a life time, have another opportunity to witness. When Mr. Cook performed a similar feat at the Cliff House, near San Francisco, not less than 30,000 were congregated to see him do it. His rope was then only 160 feet from the water, and here it is to be 120 feet from the ground.

Oro Fino Theater.—The house was well filled last evening, though there was no crowd. To-night it will be necessary to go early to obtain seats, as the popular drama of "Jack and his Steed" is to be presented—Miss Leo Hudson in the character of Jack Sheppard. Miss Eva West Hudson is to appear in the afterpiece as "Nan, the Good-for-nothing." At the 2 o'clock matinee, "Rookwood, or Dick Turpin's ride to York."

Concert.—The concert given by the Vieuxtemps Brothers last evening in aid of the Catholic Orphanage was largely attended, Philharmonic Hall being entirely full. The Brothers performed with their usual success.

Singing School.—All the children of the Public and Private schools will meet this afternoon at Philharmonic Hall at 2½ o'clock to make arrangements for the opening of the Vieuxtemps Brother's class in vocal music. After the arrangements are made, there will be some vocal and instrumental music. Teachers, parents and all are invited.

EAST PORTLAND.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Board of Trustees held their regular weekly meeting, Thursday evening, Feb. 9th.

Present, A. M. Loryea, President; Hawthorne, Helple, Lane, Tibbetts.

REMONSTRANCE AGAINST STREET IMPROVEMENT.

A remonstrance against the proposed improvement of I street, between Third and Twelfth streets, signed by Wm. Dalton, H. Cason, N. Robinson, C. Buckman, John Fay, M. McLaughlin, Patrick Quinn, R. D. Austin, L. H. Clark, Thomas Cally, Hurgren & Shindler, Thos. Fitch, F. W. Blanchett and P. Malken, representing 2,525 feet, was received and referred to the Committee on Streets and Public Property.

SURVEY OF STREET GRADES.

A communication from the City Surveyor J. W. Webber, stating that he had completed the field work under his contract for the surveys of grades on the streets of the city, and asking for an appropriation of $250, was received and placed on file.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE CITY.

A warrant was ordered in payment to N. H. Lane, for rent of Council Chamber for one month, to Feb. 8, 1871, $15.

ORDINANCES.

Mr. Loryea presented an ordinance defining vagrancy, and providing for the punishment thereof, which was read a second time and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Loryea offered a resolution providing that legal notice be given of the proposed improvement of J street, from the east side of Water street to the west side of Twelfth street, by grading to the established grade and bridging all parts overflowed by the Wallamet river; also providing for sidewalks, crosswalks, etc., which was adopted.

Mr. Hawthorne offered a resolution providing that legal notice be given of the proposition to improve L street in like manner as above, for the same distance and within the same boundaries, which was also adopted.

Mr. Lane offered a resolution providing for insuring the city property in the Council Chamber, which was adopted.

Mr. Hawthorne offered a resolution directing the Recorder to draw a warrant in favor of the City Surveyor for $250, which was adopted.

Sea Moss Farine from pure Irish Moss, for Blanc Mange, Puddings, Custards, Creams, &c., &c. The cheapest, healthiest and most delicious food in the world.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

We take the subjoined items from the Advocate:

The new preacher for the Zion M. E. Church (colored), of this city, has not yet arrived.

The ladies' Furnishing Society of the Taylor-st M. E. Church, will give their next Sociable in the basement rooms on Wednesday evening next. Admission 25 cents.

Rev. P. S. Knight, pastor of the Congregationalist Church at Salem, Oregon, we are informed, has received a call to take charge of a church in California. It is not probable that he will accept.

Rev. J. G. Deardorff, of the Oregon Conference, is among the passengers by the next steamer from San Francisco. Bro. Deardorff expected to remain in California until spring, but is called home by the severe illness of his wife.

The Baptist denomination of this coast numbers 116 churches, 5,117 members, 115 ministers and 10 home missionaries. In Washington Territory there are three Baptist churches, 70 members, two ministers and one missionary.

Rev. E. C. Anderson having resigned the pastorate of the 1st Baptist Church of Portland, Oregon, left by the steamer of Wednesday last for Santa Clara, California. Dr. Anderson has labored faithfully, and we believe successfully, for the past four years in connection with his charge in this city.

THE COURTS.

Friday, Feb. 10, 1871.

U. S. District Court—Deady, Judge—U. S. vs. A. F. Turner; motion to quash indictment; plaintiff allowed to change date of same, and cause argued and submitted. Cartwright for U. S.; Whalley for deft.

The Court adjourned till to-morrow.

U. S. Circuit Court—Deady, J.—J. Peters, assignee, vs. W. C. Hill et al—in equity; cause continued to Tuesday next.

Julius A. Peters admitted to citizenship.

The Court adjourned to Tuesday next.

County Court—Hamilton, Judge.—In Probate—In the matter of the guardianship of — Rienhart, Frank West, guardian; ordered that guardian have leave to file substitutes for certain lost papers.

County Business—The Commissioners sitting with the Judge—Wm. Allen, supervisor of road district No. 14, filed report, which was accepted.

The Commissioners spent the afternoon in the examination of bills against the county.

Want of Sleep.—Opium or morphine is usually prescribed as a soporific. Both are violent remedies and react violently, producing nausea, headache and prostration. They are often given when they are not needed; and not unfrequently they increase the irritation of the brain instead of soothing it. Probably in seventy-five cases out of a hundred in which they are administered, Plantation Bitters given in moderate doses and at proper intervals, would have the desired effect. Persons who find it difficult to compose their minds to sleep after lying down at night, or whose slumbers are disturbed by bad dreams, or are too weak to afford due nourishment, are advised to try the Plantation Bitters as an anodyne; for this comprehensive medicine is not only a tonic and alterative, but a delightful sedative—a "balm of hurt minds" as well as a reviver of enfeebled frames.

Its uses, as a means of producing healthful sleep, involves none of the unpleasant secondary consequences of a resort to the former narcotics. They all, without exception excite the stomach; while the effect of the Bitters is to tone, and without irritating that sensitive organ.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is truly a balsam. It contains the balsamic principle of the Wild Cherry, the balsamic properties of tar and pine. Its ingredients are all balsamic. Coughs, Colds and Consumption disappear rapidly under its balsamic influence.

Hurgren & Shindler, Importers and Manufacturers of FURNITURE AND BEDDING, Mirrors, Mouldings and Upholstery Goods. Warerooms—Nos. 166, 168, 170 and 172, corner of Salmon and First streets.

Our assortment of FURNITURE is the best in this city. To CASH BUYERS we offer superior inducements. Case Goods at San Francisco prices and freight. f3d

RHEUMATIC CURE.

HISTORY:

This Remedy is composed of the active principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thaspium, Cordatum, Origanus, Lat.—Indigenous to Oregon—Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington county.

PROPERTIES, &c.:

It contains an active volatile principle extracted by Ether, and a bitter Tonic principle.

Medical Properties and Uses:

It is the most Sure and Speedy Cure for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout and Rheumatic Pains of all kinds that has ever been introduced in the Materia Medica. The Unk Weed Remedy as prepared by us, in consequence of the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a POWERFUL TONIC!

Promoting the Appetite and Invigorating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus building and strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the Rheumatic Poison, removing it from the circulation and system.

There are few remedies known to the Medical profession, which will remove the Rheumatic poison from the blood, but whose action is so powerful in depressing the system of the already enfeebled Rheumatic patient, that their use has to be abandoned before specific effects are obtainable. Hence the want of an [illegible] in treating this prevalent, and in consequence, heretofore incurable disease. Unlike these Medicines, already known, the

"Unk weed Remedy"

Though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the Rheumatic Poison, also possesses a strong Tonic and recuperating element, which admits of its continued use even in the most delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of these two necessary elements in the one remedy, which accounts for its superior and never failing curative effects in

Discovery of Glaciers on the Pacific Coast.

[From the New York Evening Post.]

At the regular meeting of the Connecticut Academy, in New Haven, on Wednesday evening last, an informal but highly important communication was made by Mr. Clarence King concerning some recent discoveries upon the famous peaks of the Pacific coast, Mount Shasta, Mount Rainier, and Mount Hood. It would be hardly fair, without his authority, to attempt to give a minute account of these observations, but there can be no impropriety in reporting that during the last autumn Mr. King and his associates, in three parties, discovered the existence of active glaciers where they have never before been noticed, on the northern slopes of Mount Shasta, in California, as well as on Mount Rainer, in Washington, and Mount Hood, in Oregon. Another season he hopes to pursue these inquiries even as far north as Mount St. Elias.

This is the first instance in which, within all the territory of the United States (Alaska, of course, excepted), "live glaciers" have been found though in the East, as well as in the West, there are so many indications of glacial action in former geological epochs. The glaciers now detected (on Mount Shasta, at least), have hitherto escaped the notice of those who have climbed the peak, because their ascent has been made upon the southern slope. Mr. King, by his geological researches in the West, has been led to suspect the existence of active glaciers, and, as part of the work of exploration which he is doing for the United States Government, under Major General Humphreys, chief of the Engineer Corps, he planned, last summer, "a glacier-searching party," organized his company made the ascents on the northern instead of the southern slopes, and has been rewarded by the brilliant discoveries now recorded. He himself went up Mount Shasta, with Mr. Clark, while Mr. Emmons and Mr. Wilson were exploring Mount Rainier, and Mr. Hague went up Mount Hood.

These gentlemen are all members of the go[illegible] party organized for the survey of the [illegible] parallel, and are now in New Haven [illegible] the results of their labors in [illegible] James T. Gardner, next to Mr. [illegible] conduct of the survey, has [illegible] past at work in the [illegible] the topographical maps for [illegible] The report on this expedition [illegible] mining industry in Nevada and [illegible] by Mr James D. Hague, mining [illegible] ready to be published.

Mr. King [illegible] a good illustration of [illegible] education, as it is sometimes [illegible] called or as we prefer to say, the value of good training in modern [illegible]. He is a young, enthusiastic, active, [illegible] student who was graduated a [illegible] from the Sheffield Scientific [illegible] College. Here he had not only [illegible] in several branches of [illegible] but he received a bent toward geo[illegible] investigation, and a conception of the methods of research, which led him, as [illegible] college diploma was won, to push [illegible] California. Through Prof. Brewer, [illegible] the earliest graduates of the Sheffield [illegible] and one of the most successful scien[illegible] mountaineers and botanists in the [illegible] Mr King became a "volunteer assistant" under Professor J. J. D. Whitney on the [illegible] survey of California, with which Brewer was connected as botanist. [illegible] this service he had the energy to [illegible] point in the Sierra Nevada [illegible] by any one else, to dis[illegible] still regarded by the [illegible] as the highest point yet deter[illegible] the limits of the United States. This [illegible] Mount Whitney. Since [illegible] connection with the California survey ter[illegible] he has been in the service of the United States Government in the survey al[illegible] the fortieth parallel, [illegible] the region adjacent to the [illegible] Pacific Railroads.

[illegible] friend and associate in [illegible] spirit and an admira[illegible] part of his training in [illegible] School at Troy and a part in [illegible] among their scientific com[illegible] more who have been fitted in N[illegible] and elsewhere for the work of scientific explorers, and for the careful examination of the actual and possible characteristics of that vast western region over which our countrymen are so rapidly spreading.

Equestrianism Extraordinary.

[illegible] strianism is not an exercise peculiar [illegible] men. It comes handy once in a [illegible] as the following from the [illegible] will show:

Hampden [illegible] notorious name tacked [illegible] scallawag" was agent for the Marl [illegible] Company of Farmington, N. J. [illegible] means he managed to make his ac[illegible] short, and fled the con[illegible]. This was some months ago. Not [illegible] weeks since word was sent to the de[illegible] company that Hampden had taken up [illegible] at Blackberry Station, Kane county, [illegible] a member of the fertilizing [illegible] arrived here with an introduction [illegible] from Inspector Dilks, of [illegible]. The Captain advised the gentle[illegible] Kinney, to take along [illegible], a well-known armory offi[illegible]. Accordingly, the pair started off. They [illegible] Blackberry in time to find the chase [illegible] platform there ready to take the Oma[illegible] was evident that he smelled a [illegible], for he was wide-awake [illegible] recognized Mr. Kinney. The Union Pacific Railroad.

[From the Stockton (Cal.) Independent.]

[illegible] a few days ago that a spirited contest had been going on between the railroad capitalists of the East to obtain the control of the Union Pacific railroad, the stock of which had been thrown upon the market by the failure of the President, Oliver Ames. It was reported on the one hand that Vanderbilt had gained the ascendency, and that he would make the Union road a portion of his great overland line. On the other hand it was stated that the Pennsylvanians were ahead, and had secured control of the road. The last named report appears to have been true. The latest dispatches on the subject say that at the election in March, Thomas A. Scott will be elected President in place of Ames, and that J. Edgar Thompson, Geo. M. Pullman and J. W. Carragle, will be elected Directors. All these men, except Pullman, are Pennsylvania capitalists and Railroad men. Thompson is President of the Pennsylvania Central Road and Scott and Carragle [illegible] heavy stockholders in it. The design [illegible] this movement is undoubtedly to [illegible] Philadelphia, rather than New York, [illegible] terminus of the overland road, [illegible] in a short time anticipate a con[illegible] road, extending from Philadelphia [illegible]. Vanderbilt may possibly be able to [illegible] and still come out ahead, but the announcement from the opposition side comes in such a positive form that there is but little doubt that the Commodore has been left out in the cold. His only chance will be to build a rival road.

A serious and fatal accident took place recently at Montmedy. A railroad tunnel near the town fell in, the support giving way. A number of bridges built over the tunnel and in the vicinity have also given way, and are involved in the general ruin. A large number of French prisoners were killed by the accident, many of them being entirely buried under the ruins. The disaster was caused by excavations. On the bridges a great many persons were injured. The tunnel was situated in a populous rural district.

GENERALITIES.

"A prudent man," says a witty Frenchman, "is like a pin: his head prevents him from going too far."

The French find that their Chanzys in the present campaign are scarcely as brilliant as they had hoped.

It is reported that 500 Indian warriors have taken the field in Yucatan. Now if they will only cultivate it.

Sir Thomas Noon Talford, the biographer of Charles Lamb and author of "Ion," it is said, was the original of Tommy Traddles, in "David Copperfield."

The Baltimore Saturday Night says it begins to look ominous when the woman of the period wants her Club; he used to be satisfied with her broomstick.

Carlyle says that sarcasm is "the language of the devil." The ability to acquire a foreign language so perfectly as Mr. Carlyle has done is something remarkable.

What Gambetta is Doing For France.

The New York Nation has an article on this topic, in which the unhappy condition of France is incidentally considered. Of the proposition to continue the war, we read: "We do not say that it is not better to have fought and lost than never to have fought at all. People owe something to their self-respect, even when they know that exertion is useless," but that now "there is nothing left in the French struggle to call forth any fresh admiration:

'Neither labor, nor capital, nor foreign charity, nor peace, nor good government can give back to this generation of Frenchmen what the events of the last six months have taken from it. It will find peace in the grave, but nowhere this side of it. This seems a hard thing to say, but it is literally true. We must not judge of French capacity for recuperation by our experience of a country like ours, in which hope overflows, ties of all kinds sit lightly and are easily dissolved, enterprise vigorous, resources boundless, and change a habit.

For all these reasons, horrible a thing as it seems, we confess we cannot greatly regret anything which promises to hasten the conclusion of this mad struggle.

As to Gambetta himself, the Nation says:

Moreover, Gambetta has gone rather further than Louis Napoleon. He doctored and manipulated the elections so that the Legislature should not be otherwise-minded than himself; but Gambetta, to avoid this very small result, gravely announces that he will not call the Legislature together at all.

The consequence is that there is, in the midst of their great agony, absolutely no way in which the French people can express their wishes with regard to the prosecution of the war * * * The more successful Gambetta is in carrying on the war, the more difficult does he render it to set up anything better than Gambetta in the shape of a government after the war is over. His failure, therefore, humiliating as it is to France, is not the worst thing that could happen her.

BEET SUGAR.—The San Francisco Commercial Herald has been arguing that the manufacture of beet sugar in California will not pay. The Bulletin of that city thinks otherwise, and thus replies to its contemporary's statements:

The Commercial Herald, usually a very good friend of our manufacturing interests, seems to be lending its columns lately to a persistent effort to write down beet sugar experiments in California. Correspondents of the Bulletin having controverted some of its statements and corrected its estimates of expenses and profits, the Herald returns to the subject at length, and makes no points that have not already been sufficiently met in our columns. If beet sugar making will not pay in California, why does the writer in the Herald, who is identified by publication of his name as a party largely interested in the sugar refineries, take so much trouble to write it down? It is a suggestive fact that no anxiety was shown on this score until the Alvarado mill had entered the market as a competitor with a good article of sugar, and other beet sugar mills were projected in other localities.

PERMANENT STOCK.—It appears that the Confederate cotton loan, redeemable in gold by the Jeff. Davis Government, is still bought and sold on the London Stock Exchange. There is said to be £2,435,700 of it in the London market which cost the subscribers about ninety per cent. of its nominal value. One Britisher, known as Sir Henry De Doughton, has $386,000, which cost him nearly par. A contemporary says:

When we were struggling to put down the rebellion a few years since, not only the British Government was doing whatever they could in sidiously to injure us on the seas and to aid the rebellion, but the British aristocracy in the main was in sympathy with its government, were but too happy at the prospect of an overturn of our Republic, and took the opportunity of investing largely in Confederate bonds. We trust they have plenty of the stock left. It will be a gentle reminder to them during life to be more careful how they attempt to foster the interests of slavery, stay the progress of free government and encourage a causeless rebellion. It is intimated that the holders of these bonds entertain a faint hope that our Government at some future day may assume the payment of the scrip. If this idea affords any comfort to them, the prospect is that they will be "happy and content" a long time.

LAND DEPARTMENT OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands coterminous with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can leave the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect.
